Welcome to Dianne Adair Enrichment Programs web site.

Starting in 1983 with one location, Dianne Carbine opened Dianne Adair Daycare Centers with the ideal to bring safe, affordable daycare in an educational environment to working parents of school age children. Through her vision and guidance along with her husband Larry, we have grown to nine sites with over a hundred employees and have had thousands of children under our care.

In 2003 Dianne and Larry retired turning the company over to the capable hands of Dianne's son, Todd Porter, and Larry's son, Brian Carbine and we became Dianne Adair Enrichment Programs. Together they have great plans for future growth while maintaining the integrity of the original dream. Please feel free to browse through our pages and to contact us any time at one of our sites or the main office for questions regarding daycare or employment opportunities.
